

Index to the UVA Library “Clippings Files” on African-American Subjects Related To UVA (1950-2006)

Coverage:

The following index lists citations for items that document African-American and civil rights issues, as reported in UVA student newspapers and other news publications, from the 1950s to the 2000s. Most cited items date from the 1950s to the 1980s and represent material collected by Alderman Library staff, who were documenting life and events at the University of Virginia

Sources cited in index

Sources include UVA student publications, a small number of other UVA publications, a few Virginia newspapers, and one issue of The Nation.

Arrangement of index entries

The articles and other items listed in the index are arranged by source title (e.g. Cavalier Daily, Office of the Registrar), then by date.
